

Information about training

The School of Eurythmy art Berlin Zehlendorf, in the southeast of the city, easily accessible by underground and S-Bahn connections (U3 "Krumme Lanke" / S-station "Mexikoplatz"). The school is run by Alois Winter and college. For training are responsible: Anne-Rose Kallinowsky, Monika Höfer, Volker Frankfurt and Alois Winter.

The training:

Start of training: each September 29. The training includes four years each in three trimesters divided. The holiday in the summer, at Christmas and Easter total approximately three months. The Classes are held Monday to Friday from 8.30 to 5.00 pm (Wednesday afternoon off).

Next the daily work on the speech and tone Eurythmy accompany the specialist Hours: Speech, Music theory, anatomy, singing and anthroposophy the weekly schedule. Painting, form drawing, geometry, Metamorphosis, metrics, poetics and anthropology are taught in epochs, some of which take place in the seminar for Waldorf Education in Berlin-Mitte (center).

Requirements:

Good general education, high school or a vocational training, love and interest in to learn music and poetry and the willingness to know the anthroposophy. Age, between 18 and 30 years (exceptions are of course always possible). We expect students play a musical instrument, that they in the first year taking piano lessons. The first year is a probationary period.

Tuition fees:

Tuition fees are € 2760, - per year / € 230, - per month. It is a unique admission fee of € 80.00 charged. Through the help of donors, The school may be within a certain grant framework relief from tuition fees. Employment for a livelihood is only in the first and second year of training possible.

Federal financial aid:

The School of Eurythmy art is BaföG recognized (promotion of the state).

Diploma and Education Diploma:

After the successful completion of basic training, the school issued a from the Goetheanum recognized diploma, which enables to free teaching. - In the training, the education - integrated based study. In order to obtain the education diploma (to teach eurythmy in Waldorf schools) subsequently, a pedagogical further education is necessary.

Application:

For the application are: a handwritten CV, three passport photos and a general medical health certificate necessary. At the conclusion of the contract we also need copies of certificates (school, education). A school visit during class time (internship) is recommended. Appointment after agreement.

Entrance examination:

If you have submitted the application, you will be invited for an entrance exam . It consists from a motion test (knowledge of eurythmy is not a prerequisite), an examination of the musical skills, the recitation of two poems and a self-selected Admission interview.

More information on the school office, Phone: +49 -30 - 802 63 78
or via A. Winter, Phone: +49 -30 - 802 53 83

Leitung: Alois Winter und Kollegium

Rechtsträger: Gesellschaft zur Förderung musischer Erziehung

Steuernummer des Rechtsträgers: 27/666/53811

Konto: GLS Bank • BIC: GENODEM1GLS • IBAN: DE22 4306 0967 1111 1523 00